

WASHINGTON CENTER FOR THE BOOK
AND YOUR LIBRARY PRESENT

Book Bingo

ADULT SUMMER READING 2019

a prize winner	a subject you wish you had studied in school	recommended by a friend	DIY (gardening, cooking, crafting, etc.)	made into a movie you couldn't put it down	takes place in another country	about music or musicians	poetry or play	suggested by an elder science	set in the Northwest	FREE	suggested by a young person	recommended by a librarian fiction	graphic novel	by a Washington author	one-word title	by an author from another country by an author of color	true crime or crime fiction	use these two squares to read one BIG BOOK (you decide what "big" means to you)		set in summer

This Summer Book Bingo card was brought to you by Seattle Arts & Lectures, The Seattle Public Library, and book-loving, picnic-packing summer enthusiasts. Happy reading!